Dear Brother,

On behalf of the Area staff, I would like to welcome you to the 1970 Pow-Wow at Siouan Scout Reservation. Chanco Lodge as host has done a tremendous and excellent job in preparing the camp for our use. In the short duration of this event, there has been packed a huge amount of group sessions, discussions, displays, fun, and fellowship. This is a training program supplemented with brotherhood with its program designed to train you ----- so use it as such.

I am confident that this weekend will be a most meaningful and fruitful one to you as a lodge leader. Take every advantage of the opportunities and apply your newly acquired knowledge when you return home. Have a great weekend.

TO: All Area III-C Pow Wow Delegates

FROM: Scout Executive, Old Dominion Area Council

Welcome is an oft' used word that sometimes loses its real meaning because of the lack of sincerity. However, in this particular case it is used in the spirit of true brotherhood.

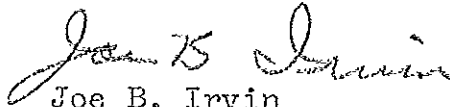

Welcome, to the first Area III-C Pow Wow ever held in the Old Dominion Area Council. We are thrilled that you are coming and we are making plans to prove this to you by making this one of the best Pow Wows ever held in our area.

We are proud of our new camp and the facilities there. While it may not be one of the larger camps in terms of acreage, etc., we are sure that you will appreciate the beauty and adequacy of Siouan Scout Reservation.

Come on down and enjoy the fellowship of Scouting with us.

We will be there in numbers to personally welcome you on April 25th and 26th, 1970.

Scoutingly yours,

Joe B. Irvin

Order of the Arrow and BOYPOWER '76

Against the backdrop of a disturbed America, the Boy Scout movement has determined that more must be done to help the boys of today prepare themselves for citizenship in the years ahead. "America's manpower begins with BOYPOWER"—and BOYPOWER begins with you.

Long-range plans are now being made to move ahead through the next 8 years to reach many more boys with a better quality program in Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, and Exploring. 1976 will mark the 200th anniversary of the United States of America. Scouting can make a great contribution to this celebration by achieving the goals that have been established in BOYPOWER '76, the B.S.A.'s new long-range plan.

The Order of the Arrow will play an important role in helping to make BOYPOWER '76 a reality. The "mission" of the Order is as follows:

1. To establish national standards for Order of the Arrow lodges and have at least 75 percent of them achieve these standards by 1976.
2. To make effective the purpose of the Order in emphasizing the ideals of the Boy Scout movement.
  - a. Recognizing those campers who best exemplify the Scout Oath and Law in their daily lives.
  - b. Developing and maintaining camping traditions and spirit.
  - c. Crystallizing the Scout habit of helpfulness into a life purpose of cheerful service to others.
3. To emphasize the main line purpose of the Order of the Arrow to promote, maintain, and support the outdoor program of Scouting.

To make the "mission" effective a "support package" has been drawn up. The main point of the "support package" is to help all Order of the Arrow lodges carry out the Onward Arrowmen Plan. A National Standard Order of the Arrow Lodge will be one that achieves the following goals by 1976:

- a. 50 percent of total lodge membership to qualify as Brotherhood members.
- b. Camping promotion committee in each lodge to help carry out the council camping promotion plan.
- c. Hold an annual lodge (and chapter) officers' training conference.

- d. Have a current where-to-go-camping publication.
- e. Publish a regular (at least quarterly) bulletin or newsletter.
- f. Maintain current membership and financial records.
- g. Hold annual membership elections in every eligible unit.
- h. Have representatives attend national Order of the Arrow conference and area fellowship training conference.
- i. Place emphasis on the following objectives—
  1. A Scout or Explorer today, a Scouter tomorrow.
  2. Advancement beyond First Class.
  3. Each Arrowman to recruit one new boy into Scouting annually.
  4. Correct wearing of the uniform through personal example.
  5. Perpetuate authentic American Indian culture and traditions.
  6. Improvement of Ordeal, Brotherhood, and Vigil ceremonies.
  7. Promotion of professional Scouting as a career.

In addition, plans are being made to improve our training program throughout the country at the lodge, area, region, and national levels. Special emphasis will be placed on the proper role of the adult in the Order of the Arrow as an adviser and "coach" to boys, to the end that boys will continue to manage the affairs and program of the Order.

National conferences are projected for 1969, 1971, 1973, and 1975.

In the years ahead the Order of the Arrow is challenged to help strengthen the Scout movement by encouraging advancement, promoting camping, holding the interests of boys in their own units, and helping new boys to join in the fun and adventure of Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting, and Exploring.

The future leadership of the Scout movement, to a large degree, will come from boys now active as Arrowmen.

The Order of the Arrow must meet the challenge of BOYPOWER '76 by making sure that every Arrowman, every chapter, and every lodge is prepared to do their part.
