April 23,
2004

Brothers,

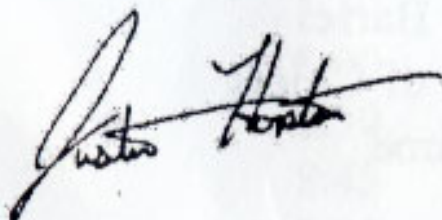

Welcome to Camp Powhatan! We have been working extremely hard to get ready for the 2004 SR-7A Conclave. We are very excited about having your lodges attend this extraordinary once a year event! This weekend promises to be one that will be remembered for years to come due to extensive planning and hard work by the host lodge and the Council of Chiefs.

My challenge to all of you this weekend is to go out and to take full advantage of all this Conclave has to offer; do not give yourself time to sit around, instead go and participate in the events, watch the ceremony competitions, and enjoy the fellowship of your fellow Arrowmen.

If you need anything this weekend please know that the staff is here for you; we will be in black shirts and black hats, so do not hesitate to ask for our assistance.

Once again, welcome and enjoy, this promises to be one of the greatest Scouting experiences of your career in this amazing movement. Let us remain dedicated to our purpose and principles, and assist our fellow man in rising "Out of the Darkness."

In Service,

Justin Horton
2004 Conclave Chairman

Kent Brown
2004 Conclave Adviser
