Fellow Arrowmen,

On behalf of Shenandoah Lodge 258, I want to welcome you to Camp Shenandoah, located in the beautiful mountains of Virginia, and to the 2014 SR-7A Conclave!

For nearly two years, Shenandoah Lodge has been hard at working preparing for your arrival. Now that you are here, you need only to ask yourself one question: "Are you ready to Seek to Serve"? Opportunities for service abound this weekend. Training will prepare you to better serve your fellow arrowmen. At the Conclave Service Project, you can serve our nation's heroes. Or perhaps you wish to serve your lodge on the Ultimate Frisbee field or at the Ceremonies Ring. Whatever your calling, Conclave 2014 offers you endless opportunity to serve!

My sincerest thanks to you for attending this event! Your participation at Conclave 2014 will not only make your chapter, lodge, and section stronger, but will also allow you an opportunity for individual growth and a great experience!

Yours in WWW,

Jack Marcum

Brothers,

It is my distinct honor and privilege to welcome you to the 2014 SR-7A Conclave at Camp Shenandoah! By attending, you are making history by being a part of the best-attended Conclave in our section's 17 year history.

This year we have added even more opportunities for you to experience what the OA has to offer. Be sure to make time for the new OA High Adventure Area and the EXPO. Stop by the Conclave Service Project, where you can assemble care packages for our nation's wounded soldiers. Plus, all of your favorite Conclave events and activities will be happening.

I encourage you to make the most of this Conclave by taking full advantage of what is offered while you are here. Learn something new, meet new friends, or re-engage with old ones. I hope you have as much fun participating in Conclave as we did planning it!

In Brotherhood,

A.J. Kelly

CONCLAVE SERVICE PROJECT: Care Packages for Wounded Soldiers

For the 2014 Conclave Service Project, SR-7A has partnered with the Walter Reed National Military Medical Center located in Bethesda, MD. Walter Reed is considered the U.S. military's premier hospital for casualty and beneficiary care and is the largest military medical center in the United States. Walter Reed is the first destination in the continental United States for caring for the wounded, ill and injured from global conflicts.

During Conclave weekend, Arrowmen have the opportunity to assemble care packages for military service members who are being treated at Walter Reed and your help is needed. A total of 6,000 care packages need to be assembled during Conclave. These care packages will contain a variety of items (such as snacks and reading materials) designed to make the stay of soldiers being treated at Walter Reed more comfortable.

The Conclave Service Project will occur at the OA Shelter beginning on Saturday at 9:00 am. Arrowmen are reminded that participation in the Conclave Service Project is a requirement for the Participation Award. Your help is needed to assemble 6,000 care packages!
